

Author Bios

Bios with Both Fiction & Non-Fiction Information:

Long Version:

After her hostile takeover of LexCorp—er, after a decade of writing boring technical manuals and project plans, Jami Gold decided to unlock her creativity and become a novelist. Her talent for making up stuff has been put to good use, including winning the 2015 National Readers' Choice Award in Paranormal Romance for the novel Ironclad Devotion in her Mythos Legacy series.

However, her journey to becoming an author exposed that far too much writing advice consists of rigid rules dictating “the right way to write,” which can lock up creativity and prevent authors from reaching their full potential. To counteract that situation, she offers a massive collection of writing resources with a flexible approach, including writing worksheets—such as the popular Romance Beat Sheet, which has been downloaded over 80,000 times and recommended by traditionally published New York Times bestselling authors and newbie writers alike—online writing-craft workshops, and over 1000 posts on her blog about the craft, business, and life of writing. As a result, her site has been named one of the 101 Best Websites for Writers by *Writer's Digest.

She hopes her writing resources will help others embrace their unique processes, stories, and career path to unlock their creativity as well, so all readers can enjoy a bounty of inspiring stories. As for herself, she continues to write award-winning paranormal romance and urban fantasy stories that range from dark to humorous, but one thing remains the same: Normal need not apply. Just ask her family—and zombie cat.

Fiction-Only Bios:

Medium Version:

After her klutziness broke her magic wand, Jami Gold moved to Arizona and decided to become a writer, where she could put her talent for making up stuff to good use, including winning the 2015 National Readers' Choice Award in Paranormal Romance for the novel Ironclad Devotion in her Mythos Legacy series. Fortunately, her muse, an arrogant male who delights in causing her to sound as insane as possible, rewards her with unique and rich story ideas.

Fueled by chocolate, she writes paranormal romance and urban fantasy tales that range from dark to humorous, but one thing remains the same: Normal need not apply. Just ask her family—and zombie cat.
